They deny that any soul could perish Greek apolloomee--be destroyed while the Apostle says it could; and so says our Lord-- God is able to destroy both soul and body. They deny also that any are fallen asleep in Christ denying that death is a sleep, awaiting a resurrection morn awakening, while the apostles, our Lord and all the holy prophets unitedly declare it to be a sleep from which God s power alone can awaken to consciousness, soul, sentient being, on any plane of existence. For be it noted that those who experience the change of the first resurrection to the divine nature will be souls as truly as they were in their earthly nature. God is declared to be a soul, the same word psuche being used, -- If any man draw back, my soul psuche--sentient being shall have no pleasure in him....
