

Healing Conversations Now: Enhance Relationships With Elders and Dying Loved Ones (Paperback)

By Joan Chadbourne, Tony Silbert

Taos Institute Publications, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Healing Conversations Now contains many stories of what happens when people engage in dialogue and conversation with loved ones and elders who are near the end of their lives. The authors wrote this book to share their experiences and hope that you will be inspired to engage in similar explorations. This book is also a handbook that provides the essential elements and tools needed so that you can engage in enriching conversations that enhance relationships. Using the approach and suggestions in this book will prepare you to enter into Healing Conversations. We might be drawn to initiate Healing Conversations for a variety of reasons: Tony recognized the time was now if he was going to know his mom as a whole person before she died of small-cell lung cancer. Crisis compelled Joan to have more meaningful and powerfully intimate conversations with each of her parents before they died. Those interactions moved her to begin years of on-going conversations with her elder aunts. They continue today. As the authors reflected on these life-changing interactions, they realized: no matter what compels us to...
