The life we are now experiencing is the sum total of the thousands upon thousands of choices we have made. In every situation, in every interaction with others, we must choose. Too often we look back, sometimes many years later, and realize we could have made a better choice. We could have chosen a Better Way. Whether we are faced with only two alternatives or a seemingly endless array of choices, our innate desire is to make the best choice possible to insure both our current and future happiness. The strategies presented here will enable and encourage you to think and make better choices. Don't make excuses. Don't blame others. There is almost always a Better Way. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
