At a certain age, children become very curious and they start asking Why? When a parent (teacher, educator, or grandparent) responds with an answer, these inquisitive children will often respond with another Why? THE QUESITON IS WHY? was inspired by the author s son, Bradley. There are 26 different questions and answers, each corresponding to a letter of the alphabet, as well as a surprise bonus question at the end of this educational and fun children s book. There is also a list of additional activities parents and educators can do with children to inspire inquiring minds as well as a list of related children s books to explore. Praise for THE QUESTION IS WHY? THE QUESTION IS WHY? incorporates both creative questioning and an innovative take on learning the alphabet. It will make a great addition to any pre-K or K-3 classroom library! -Kaitlin Roig-DeBellis, author, CHOOSING HOPE, Executive Director, and speaker This must-read children s book makes learning fun with discussion-provoking questions and beautiful illustrations. My three-year-old loves this entertaining book! -Russell D. Bernstein, parent and author, DOODLES LANHORN AND...
