EFFEMINISM: THE ECONOMY OF COLONIAL DESIRE (PAPERBACK)

The University of Michigan Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Effeminism charts the flows of colonial desire in the works of British writers in India. Working on the assumption that desire is intensely political, historically constituted, and materially determined, the book shows how the inscriptions of masculinity in the fictions of Flora Annie Steel, Rudyard Kipling, and E. M. Forster are deeply implicated in the politics of colonial rule and anticolonial resistance. At...
