Uncommon Cairo (Hardback)

By -

Uncommon Ltd, Malta, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Uncommon nurtures variety of expression through close collaboration with the editors-at-large, via a centralised editorial team. Each destination is approached with attention to detail and respect for the local customs and social structure. Uncommon seeks to remain local in a global environment, working as much as possible with local editors, contributors, publishers, printers, distributors and marketing companies in each destination, who come together globally on the Uncommon digital platform. Unique to Uncommon is the appeal to both resident and visitor, as well as to those who may never visit the destination. Unlike other formulaic travel guides that offer standard instruction to `places of interest`, Uncommon sets off where others end their journey. We do not propose to offer systematic checklists of `secret or `underground . Uncommon is not exhaustive and has within its breadth all aspects of the locality in question, not through impersonal, dry jargon, but rather through personal, evocative, distinct and well-informed voices. Text and image combine to reveal the codes and constructs of a place, and to celebrate and revere the particular. Subsequently, Uncommon compels you to find your own path and tell...
