Not for a little rural town of Stamford. Whole year its inhabitants are engaged in a monotonous routine of field work just to wake up with exciting preparations and happy talks among each other. They know that this year s fair would be nothing as what they have seen before - over the years the fair grew in its scale involving newer activities and amusements. What surprises will it hold for them this year? But not everyone shares the pleasant excitement. Mrs Benesch is used to the grand ceremonies and the refined life of London elite, and the prospect of visiting her sister in the god-forgotten town days away from their home, holds no pleasure for her whatsoever. And what is more, her daring sister insists on bringing their beloved daughter Emma to the event. Emma is twenty-three and still with no prospect of marriage. Mrs Benesch is convinced that a fair with its crude public is not a proper environment for her daughter. While Mrs Benesch looks back at her maiden years, at times when she was closer than ever with her sister, we get involved into passionate family drama, a story full of hopes and betrayal. Would Mrs Benesch be able to overcome herself and accept an invitation, or will she keep Emma forever away from her loving and caring Aunt due to long-ago...
