Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There is a misconception that the Word of God is only full of perfect and unblemished individuals nestled and folded throughout the pages. However, the beauty of the Bible displays historical places, within extraordinary circumstances, involving ordinary people along with their many problems. If you didn't know it God can use anyone. That includes, at times, the complicated and yet called, women. Are you one who seems to be drenched in failure never knowing where to turn? Perhaps in the past you hadn't any problem with following those that you had trusted and loved, only to have discovered their foundation (which you've been following) was based on faulty ideologies, negative traditions, and decades of poor influence. Perhaps, being a great leader is only indicative of being a great follower, but who are you following and what are you being influenced by? After the fall of man, humanity needed the love and counsel of the Godhead even more so, but in a world corroded with sin and polytheism who could be found listening for the still small voice. The Women God Used is about how we all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of the Lord, but this book is a celebration of the union between God and man, and what humanity can achieve through an obedient heart toward Him. This book is about stumbling and falling, but it is also about getting back up when choosing to align our will with His will -the One who always hopes, always trusts and always perseveres on our behalf. This book is for the believers, seekers, non-believers, agnostic, or atheist, but its journey is primarily focused on, The Women God...
