CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 112 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.3in.Excerpts from the PREFACE: This book is the first in the series to be used by the child and is l intended to furnish rote songs and introductory sight-reading material after the children have had a year of rote singing. ROTE SONGS. Many of the songs have been composed for this book, and especial care has been taken that the rhythm of tune and text coincide; i. e. , musical and verbal accents fall together. No melodies have been included which do not carry with them a natural and satisfactory harmonic basis. This condition has been most carefully watched, and it applies to both accompanied and unaccompanied melodies. FROM BLACKBOARD TO BOOK. Even after the child has become accustomed to the chart or blackboard he finds difficulty at first in following the melody-line in a book. This difficulty may be minimized and the childs introduction to the book made more enjoyable, by first using songs with which he is already familiar. The songs on the first twenty-three pages are suitable for this purpose, and some of them may be taught in the early part of the year before the book is placed in the hands of the pupil. For this purpose also, and to facilitate review, several songs from the authors First Year Music are repeated in this book. ACCOMPANIMENTS. Piano accompaniments have been included with a large proportion of the songs for the following reasons: 1. To encourage home singing and make music in the home more enjoyable and beneficial. 2. To develop a correct harmonic sense, so essential to the childs musical education. 3. To avoid the crude and distorted harmonies that are usually characteristic of...
