Resource Publications (CA), 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bazyn s poems seek to encourage Christians of all stripes to present a new song unto the Lord--by actual example and useful advice. All sorts of issues relating to creativity are touched upon, whether theological, psychological, sociological, philosophical, linguistic, or autobiographical. Among the topics covered: finding your own voice; reading widely and deeply in the classics; being spare, concise in your style; discovering your genuine self beneath its assorted masks; taking occasional flights of fantasy; considering your mind as a house of memory; perfecting your art, even in a miniature way. Celebrating your mentors--among the authors are Dickinson, Donne, and Hafez; reflecting on your past by looking at old photographs; drawing inspiration from home and family; not allowing overly critical editors to stifle your creativity; recognizing that the artistic life may be a lonely and perilous journey toward fulfillment; seeking after God s will in all that you do; never being afraid to head into deeper waters; acknowledging that we are, at best, half-converted souls. Black-and-white photos by the author illumine the themes of these pieces. Also, there is a bibliography of recommended readings on creativity. Go, and find your voice; then let it rise up to the Lord night and day. I like Bazyn s writing and photography very much indeed. What impresses me most is the imaginative energy that he brings to the task. It is amazing! --Leland Ryken, Author of A Complete Handbook of Literary Forms in the Bible I am astonished and delighted at the way Bazyn brings together spirituality, culture, philosophy, myth, and storytelling--along with captivating photos--to light up the meaning of words and phrases, and life itself. --Michael Leach, co-editor of The Way of Gratitude: Reflections for...
