Not illustrated. 1801 Excerpt: .page 66), that the French government, zealous of giving to the United States proofs of its attachment, had commenced negotiations with the regency of Al giers, in order to put an end to the war which that power was making on the commerce of the United States. That the minister for foreign affairs instructed Fauchet (the very Fauchet who expressed his regret that the Western rebellion did not succeed) to communicate to the Federal Government the steps which that of France had taken in this respect, which he did in the following terms, on the 4th of June, 1794. I have already had the pleasure, Sir, to in form you, verbally, of the interest which the committee of public safety of the National Corj vention had early taken in the truly unhappy si tuation of your commerce in the Mediter ranean. I now fulfil the duty imposed on me by the government, by calling to your recolleclion in writing, the steps which are to be taken by our agent with the dey of Algiers, for repressing this new manoeuvre of the British administration, which has put the fInishing stroke to its proofs of malevolence towards free people. The dis patch of the minister communicating this mea sure to me, is dated the 5th January, 1794, and did not come to my htnds till fifteen days ago; I do not yet know by what route; I could have wished it had been less tardy in coming to me,...
